

Name	Amount	Purpose
Amabile Choirs of London	$19,000.00	Operating funds to continue our mandate of allowing talented youth to grow musically, personally, and aesthetically in an environment that fosters individual character development.
London Fanshawe Symphonic Chorus	$17,500.00	Operating funds to offset the costs of creating the two main series of Fanshawe Chorus London, and the Gerald Fagan Singers. To assist the organization in its mandate of continuing to bring world-class repertoire and guest artists to London at affordable ticket prices.
The Arts Project	$13,000.00	Operating funds to assist The Arts Project with annual multi-disciplinary arts programming to engage local and regional audiences, increase public accessibility of multi-formatted presentations, to engage local artists and retain our community's professional artistic demographic by providing unique awareness, education, and audience development activities.
Forest City Gallery	$11,500.00	Operating funds to support emergent as well as experimental and established cultural practices within visual, literary, performance and media based arts.
London Pro Musica	$11,000.00	Operating funds in support of the 2007-2008 Concert Series: for artistic personnel (guest artists, conductor, accompanist), to facilitate London Pro Musica's mandate of collaborative concerts and community-based performances in its 38th Season.
London Committee for Cross Cultural Arts Inc.	$10,000.00	Operating funds to support the Sunfest Global Arts Program
London Fringe Theatre Festival	$10,000.00	Operating funds to support the promotion, production, and prosperity of independent artists. To create a unique and inclusive environment where the arts will be enjoyed in the present and developed for the future.
London Community Players	$8,500.00	Operating funds to support the continually expanding operational activities of the London Community Players
The London Youth Symphony	$7,000.00	Operational funding to ensure the accessibility of a professionally directed orchestra experience to London's youth.
Original Kids Theatre	$5,850.00	Project funding to expand on the yearly production in the Rotary Reading Garden to a full day series of "Pay-What-You-Can" family events throughout the Fringe Festival
Kiwanis Music Festival of London	$5,000.00	Operating funds to help young musical performers as they explore their musical potential through performance and friendly competition.
Imadon Street Painting Festival	$5,000.00	Operating funds to build on last year's success and expand Expressions in Chalk
Karen Schuessler Singers	$4,000.00	Operating funds to support the Karen Schuessler Singers vision to provide an environment for people's souls to be inspired, spirits to be lifted and hearts to be lightened.
Brassroots	$4,000.00	Project funding to record a new CD entitled London Calling using the combined talents of Brassroots and some of London's most outstanding musicians.
Aeolian Performing Arts Centre	$4,000.00	Project funding to cover artist fees for the Summer Arts Soiree.
Theatre Soup	$3,000.00	Project funding to produce Theatre Soup's 9th season of productions. To mount two full productions utilizing local actors, directors, writers, producers designers and technicians.
London International Children's Festival	$3,000.00	Operating funds to support the four day Festival in June where thousands of children in school groups and families will have the opportunity to experience the arts by actively participating in free and nominal cost multidisciplinary activities, workshops and performances including magic, painting, scientific investigations, music and literary artistic explorations.
Artisans London	$3,000.00	Operating funds to coordinate and promote the Kids Do Art Program which exposes 6-10 year old children from an under serviced area of London to a variety of visual arts and crafts.
London One Act Festival	$3,000.00	Project funding to support the showcasing of local theatre talent through the medium of short plays. The adjudication aspect gives the participants an opportunity to learn from the experience.
Home County Folk League	$3,000.00	Operating funds to support the artistic budget and production costs for the 2007 Home County Festival and year round programs.
Donna Creighton	$3,000.00	Project funding for the production of "Northern Daughter"
Crouch Neighbourhood Resource Centre	$2,500.00	Project funding to support the annual London based St. Julien Park community festival mainstage.
Catherine McInnes	$2,500.00	Project funding to produce a recording of 14 original songs featuring professional local and regional Canadian musicians. Songs are based on the theme "Exposed". They explore character conflicts involving hope vs fear, life vs death and outward appearances vs inward deceptions
Forest City Talent Education	$2,000.00	Operating funds to offset costs associated with the ongoing artistic direction and administration of the program.
The London Singers	$2,000.00	Project funding to present "A Feast of Carols" concert to include seasonal classics.

London Jewish Film Festival	$2,000.00	Project funding to maintain an educational outreach film program for London's primary and/or secondary students, in collaboration with the Thames Valley District School Board, the London District Catholic School Board and Rainbow Cinemas. The program features films that address the Holocaust, as well as themes of diversity and tolerance. Special guest speakers are invited to lead discussions with students after the screenings.
Lacey Smith	$2,000.00	Project funding to bring professional calibre contemporary dance to the City of London
Canadian Celtic Choir	$1,500.00	Operating funds for the purchase of sheet music
Kala Manjari	$1,500.00	Operating funds to support the hosting of a memorable 10th Anniversary Performance Season and to continue building upon our successes of past years & furthering our reputation as a leading artistic organization in the community. The request includes operations support for venue & facilities rentals.
Musical Theatre Productions	$1,500.00	Operating funds to support the continued highest quality musical theatre experience to members, volunteers and audiences through a changing season.
McIntosh Gallery	$1,500.00	Project funding to offer a public forum for the exploration and experience of the role of the arts as an essential cultural component of interactive community experiences and identity formation through on-line gaming virtual communities on the internet.
Cantorion	$1,500.00	Operating funds to support Cantorion's 2006/07 concert season & facilitate its mission of being "London's premier community choir by providing excellent concert performances. Cantorion's new focus is to invite youth to perform at its concerts, giving students opportunities to develop their musical talents and become lifelong learners of music
London Chapter Sweet Adelines	$1,500.00	Operating funds for professional voice coaching
Canadian Music Competitions	$1,200.00	Operating funds to help provide London musicians with a wide range of performance opportunities, community involvement and competition at the regional level.
London Potters Guild	$1,000.00	Operating funds to hire a part-time studio technician to manage the operations of the studio and coordinate volunteers
Serenata Music	$1,000.00	Project funding to present a recital series supporting and showcasing local talent as well as world-renowned performers
Pride London Festival	$1,000.00	Project funding to cover artists fees, venue and curator fees for the pride Art Exhibit
Ruth Strebe	$1,000.00	Project funding to write and create a run of two bookworks
Black Hand Theatre	$1,000.00	Project funding to establish a stronger presence in the City of London
Channel Surfing Productions	$1,000.00	Project funding to presents its second season highlighted by two original works.
Joshua Richardson	$1,000.00	Project funding to support the rewriting and implementation of book, music, lyric and orchestral changes and two separate public readings of "P & J - The Mock Musical".
Outward Sound Ensemble	$1,000.00	Project funding to continue a three day multi-disciplinary showcase of the arts fusing experimental sound, theatre, visual art, video, dance and poetry.
Letter and Arts Society of London	$1,000.00	Operating funds to raise awareness of the arts in London through a not-for-profit Literary Series open to the Fanshawe College and London communities.
Theatre Nemesis	$1,000.00	Project funding to support two productions: a new script entitled "Knight of Infinite Resignation" and a new musical "Three".
Stephanie Demas	$1,000.00	Project funding to adapt and expand "the 34th day" which featured in the 2007 Playwright's Cabaret at the Grand Theatre
Poetry London	$1,000.00	Operating funds to expand the 2006/07 reading series to fully compensate London poets and writers at every literary reading
London Cdn. Film Festival	$1,000.00	Project funding to support the 5th annual London Canadian Film Festival
Fresh Faces	$1,000.00	Project funding cover artistic fees for a choreographer and workshop leaders.
The Light of East Ensemble	$1,000.00	Project funding to produce a CD of Near East and Middle Eastern music to promote to our diverse community of London, the outlying region and Canada
Eva Blahut	$1,000.00	Project funding to create a first person account of how it feels to face losing one's sight for presentation at the 2008 London Fringe Festival
Scott Connaroe	$1,000.00	Project funding to support and extend the research capabilities of an emerging Canadian photographer based here in London
New Horizons Band	$750.00	Project funding to develop a lyrical concert band composition that reflects our locale and make-up of the New Horizons Band London by hiring a London composer. The composition would be preacted and then performed locally and abroad by 90 Londoners making up the senior bands.
All City Choir	$700.00	Operating funds to provide an enriched choral experience through rehearsals and performance at various venues throughout the city for all students within Thames Valley District.
Disjointed	$625.00	Project funding to provide London with a different sort of dance/music experience to look forward to for late summer 2007.

Kathe Hall	$500.00	Project funding to support an exhibition that through the medium of fine art photography and the written word, give a voice to abused women.
London Early Music Festival	$500.00	Project funding to bring historically informed concerts and masterclasses to the London community enriching the city's culture and awareness of early music.
The Passionfool Theatre Co.	$500.00	Project funding to kick of the companies existence with a two-week, ten performance run of Shekespeare's beloved masterpiece, "A Midsummer Night's Dream".
Felipe Rocha	$500.00	Project funding to support the creation/production of an installation piece representing pre-Columbian art influences
Peter Cavell	$500.00	Project funding to hire a voice-over artist, photographer & technical director for "Walking the Labyrinth" an experimental musico-dramatic piece premiering in the 2007 Fringe Festival
Robyn Israel	$500.00	Project funding to produce a one-woman show at the London Fringe Theatre Festival. The play is designed to explore with humour and sensitivity the joys and challenges of moving from California to London Ontario
Morag Webster-Lesarge	$500.00	Project funding to produce a work of art that references the London teenager becoming an adult in our community. The painting/installation to be done on a large scale, in a style reminiscent of Vermeer's everyday life paintings but with a modern twist.
Beth Turnbull-Morrish	$500.00	Project funding to create a series of pottery Hospitality Service Sets that will celebrate cultural diversity through the common pleasures associated with shared meals and foods.
Jim Kogelheide	$500.00	Project funding to support a visual arts project designed to be completed by individuals of the London community.
Ron Benner	$375.00	Project funding for replanting and maintenance of three gardens using Native American plants at Grosvenor Lodge.
	$200,500.00	