

Company Name	Amount	Purpose
Amabile Choirs of London	$19,000	To enhance the musical skills of the choristers, to perform for/with other not for profit organizations, to bring professional soloists, conductors to London and to promote the City of London by participating in choral competitive festivals.
London Fanshawe Symphonic Chorus	$17,500	To offset the costs of creating the two main series of Fanshawe Chorus London, and the Gerald Fagan Singers. To assist the organization in its mandate of continuing to bring world-class repertoire and guest artists to London at affordable ticket prices.
The Arts Project	$17,000	To provide artists, Arts groups, schools, and non-profit organizations with affordable: artist studios, educational workshops, exhibition space, performance area and arts related programs.
London Committee for Cross Cultural Arts Inc.	$13,500	Operational funding to support the Sunfest Global Arts Program
London Fringe Theatre Festival	$13,000	To assist with general operational expenses and technical production costs of London's largest community arts festival
London Pro Musica	$11,000	Operational funding in support of the 2006/07 Concert Series.
Forest City Gallery	$10,000	Operational funding to support emergent as well as experimental and established cultural practices within visual, literary, performance and media based arts.
The London Youth Symphony	$8,000	Operational funding to provide payment to four music directors and a variety of sectional coaches.
London Community Players	$7,000	Operational funding to support quality live theatre in London at affordable prices; provide drama and theatre education and training; assist other dramatic and cultural groups by making facilities available for use.
Original Kids Theatre	$5,050	Project Funding to continue the tradition of a musical in the Rotary Reading Garden as a "pay what you can" event throughout the Finge Festival.
Kiwanis Music Festival of London	$5,000	Operating funds to help young musical performers as they explore their musical potential through performance and friendly competition.
Brassroots	$4,500	Project funding to commission London's celebrated composer, Jeff Christmas, to write an original work for a ten piece brass ensemble, percussion and guest vocal soloists and jazz trio.
Karen Schuessler Singers	$4,000	Operational funding in support of the 2006/07 subscription series. To engage several professional London and Canadian soloists and a variety of musicians representing various genre of music.
Clark Bryan	$4,000	To produce the Summer Arts Festival at Aeolian Hall
London Musical Theatre	$3,500	Operational Funding to support the continued highest quality musical theatre experience to members, volunteers and audiences through a changing season.
Imadon Street Painting Festival	$3,500	Operating funds to present the Imadon Street Painting Festival which is a public performance of the centuries old art form of chalk painting on pavement. Showcasing the skills of local and international artists for the viewing pleasure of Londoners/visitors.
Artisans London	$3,325	Operational funding to support the participation of children in various art forms. To develop an appreciation of art and the artistic skills of children.
Theatre Soup	$3,200	To produce Theatre Soup's 8th season of productions. To mount two full productions utilizing local actors, directors, writers, producers designers and technicians.

London International Children's Festival	$3,000	Project funding to support on-site multidisciplinary activities and workshops.
London One Act Festival	$3,000	Project funding for a forum to promote the theatre community, as well as visual and musical arts in London, creating an environment that appeals to a wide audience and introduces new theatre goers/participants to the joy of the stage.
Crouch Neighbourhood Resource Centre	$2,825	Operational funding to support the annual London based St. Julien Park community festival.
Kala Manjari	$2,500	Operational funding in support of programming and bringing world-class artists in Music and Dance to the City of London.
McIntosh Gallery	$2,500	Project funding to support Open Air III: Art & Architecture, a thematic community celebration of creative Londoners.
Home County Folk League	$2,500	Operational funding in support of the Home County Folk Festival and year round support of folk music in London.
Forest City Talent Education	$2,000	Operational funding to offset costs associated with adding two public concerts and the ongoing artistic and administrative costs of the program.
Pretentious Theatre	$2,000	Project funding to mount a full production of the London Fringe Show, P&J: The Original Mock Musical.
Outward Sound Ensemble	$2,000	Project funding to present a three-day multi-disciplinary showcase of the arts fusing experimental sound, theatre, visual art, video, dance and poetry.
The London Singers	$2,000	Project funding to support an exciting concert of Mozart's classic masterworks to celebrate the 250th anniversary of his birth.
London Jewish Film Festival	$2,000	Project funding to establish an educational outreach film program for London's primary and/or secondary students, in cooperation with the Thames Valley Board of Education and Rainbow Cinemas.
Theatre Nemesis	$2,000	Project funding to present Windego, a play about the clash between nature and civilization, intellect and instinct, masculinity and femininity.
Culture Zone for the Arts	$1,500	Operational funding to support Culture Zones promotion and enrichment of the cultural, educational and recreational development of the London community through the arts and cross-cultural relationship building.
Claire McCague	$1,500	Project funding to produce "Petr's Boy" in the London Fringe Festival. To commission works from emerging London artist Ryan Boris Hamilton to be featured in the production.
Canadian Music Competitions	$1,200	Operational funding to support memorial scholarships.
Channel Surfing Productions	$1,000	Project funding to support the premier of a sketch comedy show and two brand new local plays
Canadian Welsh Singers Inc.	$1,000	Operational funds to create the position of Choir Marketing & Concert Coordinator.
Letter and Arts Society of London	$1,000	Operational funding to raise awareness of the arts in London through a not-for-profit Literary Series open to the Fanshawe College and London communities.
All City Choir	$700	Operational funding to provide an enriched choral experience through rehearsals and performances at various venues throughout the city for all students within Thames Valley District.
Ian Gifford	$500	Project funding to create a CD tribute to the Smales Pace/Change of Pace coffee house scene in London.

Poetry London	$500	Operational funding to expand the 2006/07 reading series to fully compensate London poets and writers at every literary reading
Bohemia Productions	$500	Project funding to produce Blow This Popsicle Stand at the London Fringe Theatre Festival